

Love Doctor Provides Honest Guidance and Reveals The Secret You Must Know to Completely Transform Your Relationship to Its Highest Potential

Dear fellow relationship builder

If you are serious about changing your relationship into a wonderful, happy, loving, caring, nurturing, fun, playful, joyful, passionate one...where you can rekindle the magic and make love work...then this might be the most important letter you will ever read.

Please Do Not Read Any Further...

Please do not read any further if you are not serious about taking the necessary steps to change your relationship.

Here's Why You Want This Book:

This is the only book that focuses on The Law of Attraction within relationships. In fact this Book is your personal self-help Guide that will make the process of transforming your relationship to its highest potential, the best investment for your relationship and in personal development you have made.

Time passes and people change. With each turn of the wheel of life we can feel both great excitement and great loss.

Why Am I Saying This?

My story starts with personal loss...sexual abuse, divorce after 17 years, children leaving, feeling suicidal...and demonstrates how, with perseverance and willingness to risk, you can recover from your life experiences and find happiness again. You too can move from sadness, pain and/or anger into joy.

My commitment to listening and communicating honestly and fearlessly to form strong, lasting relationships is the centrepiece of my approach.

Along The Way...

I have helped and guided many clients to transform their relationships. If their relationship is already over, clients discover what they really want in a relationship and their role in a future relationship.

By taking responsibility and loving yourself more you will attract more.

Three Reasons Why You Should Believe What I Say...

Reason one: I am a teacher and coach as well as a counsellor/psychotherapist by profession and passion. This unique learning approach could only originate in the minds of those who understand what needs to be taught and how best to learn it.

"Rekindle The Magic In Your Relationship! Making Love Work" is an affirmation of your human ability to create an abundant life despite setbacks and circumstances and to feel that you deserve such abundance in your relationship.

Reason two: I have been there; I have been divorced and I have learnt what I could have done differently. As a coach and counsellor/psychotherapist I have helped others to learn what I know.

Like me, you will find that your biggest defence is your attitude ... you must hold the mirror up to yourself, as I had to once ... decide to take responsibility for your role in your relationship and life.

Reason three: Professionals and non-professionals globally have found my relationship message to be one of transformation...of oneself and one's world. It touches on every aspect of relationships, from the physical and mental to the financial and spiritual. Who else to help you Rekindle The Magic In Your Relationship than a teacher/coach/counsellor who loves guiding to be the voice for what is possible for you?

In the time that I have known and worked with Anita Jackson, one thing has become very clear: her deep commitment to learning, growing and being the best she can be in all that she does. In this book, Rekindle the Magic in Your Relationship: Making Love Work, Anita is inspiring and empowering others to follow her lead and be the best they can be!

This book is a living testament to who Anita is and the way in which she has not only supported her clients to seek out and expect better relationships in their lives, but also of her own personal journey of marriage that she willingly and passionately shares with others to help set them on a better path of their own journey...

...In this powerful book, Rekindle the Magic in Your Relationship: Making Love Work, Anita reaffirms the power of imaging and changing your thinking as it relates to your relationships. By imaging and thinking of your relationship in a new way and painting a clear picture of exactly what you want ... and focusing on what you want, you will ultimately attract what you want. Believe it or not, most people focus on what they don't want ... they focus on the bad relationship, the things the other person isn't doing ... and the list goes on. Anita offers a fresh perspective for those who are willing to take heed and create the relationship of their dreams.

Awareness of the role we play in a given relationship allows us to take that relationship to a higher level ... we begin to view it differently and thereby respond to situations that arise as opposed to reacting to what life sends our way. In a gentle and kind way, Anita shares her wisdom on seeing only the good in our loved ones and creating an environment that allows them to fulfil this "new" role more and more.

This book offers practical tips for people to think differently about their relationships in a more loving and positive way and also gives the reader some simple action steps they may use to take their relationship to the next level.
